

Speech

Baccalaureate Transfer Program

The speech program goal is to provide a forum for students to become better communicators, public speakers, small group communicators, and actors. Students study the process of communication theories and put those theories into practice. They learn the thoughtful preparation and practice of delivering speeches. Students improve problem solving and decision-making skills. They also learn the fundamental principles of acting.

The Speech program meets both vocational and transfer requirements at Danville Area Community College.
